GEO. P. BELLOWS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

AUTOMOBILE RAN OFF BRIDGE NEAR EMBREE FARM.

FUNERAL ON THURSDAY

Accident Was Not Witnessed by Anyone, and the Cause Not Known—Shock to the City.

George P. Bellows, the noted live stock auctioneer, was instantly killed Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, when his automobile ran off of the bridge near the city, causing it to turn over with him. His chest was crushed in by the steering wheel, causing instant death. He also received other injuries.

No one saw the accident, which occurred at the small bridge west of the Embree farm home, about two and a half miles southwest of Maryville. Mr. Bellows had taken his sister, Miss Clara Bellows, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles D. Bellows, from the Bellows home in this city to Parkdale, the country home of his brother, Charles D. Bellows, southwest of Maryville, and was on his way for a visit at his own farm, a mile distant from that of his brother. When within a quarter of a mile of his destination it seemed that the car deviated from its course in the road just before approaching the small bridge over the creek. It is not known whether Mr. Bellows lost control of his car or not. The road leading to the bridge is down hill, and as it neared the approach to the bridge a short, sharp turn was necessary to bring the car into the right course to get upon the bridge. As he did so it seems that the right front wheel, instead of going upon the bridge as he intended it should, struck a plank at the edge of the bridge, about two feet from the end of the bridge upon which he was driving. The first post on the bridge was also torn off, and the car went over into the ditch, about ten feet deep, turning over on its top.

H. F. Medsker of near Graham was driving to Maryville in his car Monday afternoon, bringing with him Superintendent W. B. Christy of the Maryville M. E. district and Rev. H. K. Morga, pastor of the Graham and Quitman churches, who had been holding Sunday meeting at Mt. Zion church, southwest of Maryville.

As the party neared the little bridge over the ravine near the Embree farm, about 4 o'clock, they saw a buggy stop in the road ahead of them and two men get out and were standing at the bridge looking down as they drove up.

The men told them of the automobile overturned, and said they believed an old man and a woman were pinned under the car, as a car had passed them awhile back, driven by an old man, and a woman was with him.

Mr. Medsker and his party stopped, and seeing the post and bannisters of the bridge torn off and the big car turned over, they knew they must have help. A boy came up at that moment and said he believed it was the Bellows car.

Going down into the ravine and looking under the car, Dr. Christy was the first to recognize the face of George P. Bellows.

The news was telephoned by Dr. Christy from the Embree home to the Mason & Wilderman garage, where help was asked for, then to Dr. A. B. Allen for aid, and to the Maryville National bank, asking the business associates of C. D. Bellows, a brother of the deceased, to inform him of what had occurred.

Those who first found the overturned car are of the opinion that the accident had not occurred more than two minutes before they reached the spot. They are also of the opinion that the steering gear was at fault in some way, for the emergency wheel had been turned when Mr. Bellows saw his danger, but it had failed to do the work, or had been turned on too late. The post was torn off one side of the bridge.

They believed Mr. Bellows was fatally injured, perhaps dead, from the crushed look of his chest. The cigar he had been smoking was held in his mouth naturally. A slight abrasion of the skin across the nose and cheeks, as if made by a brush of weeds, was the only other sign of hurt.

When word reached Maryville, Mrs. Bellows and her mother, Mrs. M. J. Honnold, were attending a meeting of the Twentieth Century club at the home of Mrs. E. G. Orear. Word was sent to Mrs. Orear that her guests were needed at home at once, and the news of Mr. Bellows' death was kept from them until they reached their home.

Word was telegraphed to Mr. Harold Bellows, who is attending the Iowa Agricultural college at Ames, Ia., and the young man arrived home Tuesday morning. Fred Bellows, a nephew, who is also a student at Ames, arrived Tuesday.

The funeral services will take place Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the family home, 403 West First street. Rev. Gilbert S. Cox of the First M. E. church will have charge of the service. Interment in Miriam cemetery.

This is the second shock of grief that has come to the Bellows family in a month's time.

Mrs. Franklin Bellows, the mother of George P. Bellows, suddenly expired on the afternoon of January 16 last, at her home on South Fillmore street, in this city. Her husband died there December 2, 1907.

The brothers and sisters who survive Mr. Bellows are Charles D. and Fayette Bellows and Miss Clara Bellows of Maryville, John A. and Edwin Bellows of Chicago, Mrs. Artie Shack and Mrs. Mary Johnston of Seattle, Wash. One brother, Franklin Bellows, Jr., is deceased.

George Purdy Bellows was born in Champaign county, Ill., July 19, 1862. In 1865 his parents moved to Missouri and settled on a farm near Guilford.

His boyhood days to his majority were spent here, and here he laid the foundation for that sterling good character so marked in all his later life. In 1883 the farm was sold and the family come to Maryville, purchasing what was later known as the Valley Home farm.

At this time Mr. Bellows began his life career for himself. He attended the Missouri state university for a year, taught a term of country school and served a term as deputy county clerk under John S. Miller. On September 15, 1886, he married Miss Lela E. Honnold. To this union one son was born, Harold Honnold Bellows.

The lure of the farm and his love of fine stock drew him back again to the soil, and in 1888 he purchased an interest in Valley Home farm, where he stayed and engaged in the breeding of pedigreed Shorthorn cattle and Poland-China hogs. He was a close student, and an ardent love for his chosen work, together with his experience already acquired, soon rendered him an adept in the business.

In 1893 he accepted a position as live stock advertising solicitor on the Iowa Homestead of Des Moines, Ia., and Live Stock Indicator, of Kansas City, Mo. In this line his success was phenomenal.

Commencing with a liberal supply of energy, a thorough working knowledge of live stock, a clean, honest life, and a happy faculty of making friends, his years of work as a solicitor were a series of personal successes. He made friends and held them. He made friends for his papers. He developed a remarkable talent in judging live stock and in writing. His acquaintance extended to the best and most prominent breeders, and he was enabled to return value received for the money spent with his employers. His work in the field throughout his entire connection therewith was of the most satisfactory character.

His judgment of individuality in live stock, and his faculty of clear expression, made his reports of the prominent exhibitions exceedingly popular, and in this particular his papers were especially fortunate. In knowledge of pedigree Mr. Bellows has perhaps no equal. Twelve years constant visiting among the improved stock breeders made him acquainted with practically every animal of note, and there are

Word has been received in Maryville that Governor Major will appoint two members of the Maryville Normal board of regents soon after his return from Washington, where he is to go to attend the inauguration of President Wilson, March 4. He has practically decided on his appointments to this board. A rumor from Jefferson City has it that Governor Major is to appoint a Maryville man to the board to fill one of these places.

The terms of Henry J. Hughes of Trenton and O. P. Williams of Plattsburg, on the board of regents, expired in January. The two new men to be appointed by Governor Major will be Democrats.

It is also given out that Governor Major will make his appointments of the asylum board of St. Joseph at the same time that his Normal appointments are made. The term of W. C. Pierce of this city on the asylum board expired in January, and a Democrat will be selected by Governor Major to take his place.

CRAIG SHOE BILL KILLED.

Undefended Measure Dies in Committee by Unanimous Vote.

Jefferson City.—The senate committee on commerce and manufactures, by a unanimous vote tonight killed the Craig bill providing that shoes manufactured in this state in which any other material than leather is used must be branded as imitation leather or containing such.

A large delegation of shoe manufacturers, jobbers, wholesalers and retail dealers in shoes were here in opposition to the bill and no one appeared in its favor. The manufacturers by dissection of shoes and other demonstrations convinced the committee that materials other than leather could be used in certain parts of a shoe to much better advantage both to the wearer and the manufacturer than leather.

Senator Craig of Nodaway, author of the bill, said that he introduced it at the request of a retail merchant in his district and knew nothing about its merits or faults.

Announce Daughter's Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lindsay of Hopkins announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances Lindsay, to Mr. Harry A. Jones, at Troy, Kan., on Tuesday, February 11, 1913. The announcement comes as quite a surprise to the friends of the bride in Hopkins and Maryville, although it was expected that her marriage to Mr. Jones would be at no distant date. Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who are in business in Hopkins, went to St. Joseph on the day of the marriage, presumably on a business trip. In order to be sure that their marriage could be kept secret for a week, they went over to Troy, Kan., and were married. The bride is one of the most accomplished young women of Hopkins and has been the regular correspondent from that place for The Democrat-Forum, and is one of its valued contributors. Mr. Jones is a son of J. West Jones of Lenox, Ia., the well known auctioneer and breeder of fine stock. He has been connected with the Jones National School of Auctioneering of Chicago for several years, of which his brother, Harry M. Jones, is the head. He will retain his interest in that school, but will continue his business in Hopkins.

Dew Drop Inn Club.

A most enjoyable event was the entertainment of the Dew Drop Inn club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jones, Thursday evening. It was in the form of a valentine social, and the rooms were decorated with red hearts and darts. There was a postoffice and all had a merry time over the distribution of the valentines by the postmaster, Mr. H. W. Farrar. Valentine games were played, and in a contest of "proposals," Mrs. E. A. Baker received the prize, the consolation prize going to Miss Roxie McGinniss. A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Marguerite Greeson. The table was decorated with red hearts and green vines, the place cards being cupids. While the first course was being served little Wendell Jones brought in some delayed mail, and each guest received another valentine. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farrar and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Moore and son, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baker, Mr. P. H. Spaulding, Misses Marguerite Greeson, Roxie McGinniss, and the host and hostess. It was a most delightful evening.

The next meeting of the club will be a George Washington social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Moore, February 27.

A Pleasant Surprise.

A very pleasant surprise was planned and effectively carried out Saturday evening at the home of Peter Hope in honor of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Rasco and Cleta Rasco. A delightful evening was spent, after which a luncheon of pie was served. Mr. Rasco and family will move to Barnard Tuesday. There were about sixty-three present. Those present were Mr. Peter Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis, Mrs. L. F. Beecher, Mr. George Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. William Housman, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Criss, Mr. and Mrs. John Brewer, Mrs. Jesse Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Davis, Misses Cletta Rasco, Ada and Arno Davis, Gertie and Rada Lance, Nora Kent, Ethel and Grace Stanton, Della and Julia Beecher, Lola Davis, Abbie and Emma Criss, Messrs. Harry Schmitt, Otis Stout, Stephen Lance, Ova Stout, Walter Criss, Bert Fanning, Reuben Neely, Glen Stanton, Henry Miller, David Townsend, Elbert Glaze, Earl Hurst, Oren Neely, Charley Hope, Lawrence Smith, Edward Shannon, Seibert Davis, Jay, Robert and Lloyd Ferguson, Wayne Housman, Emery Criss, Luke and Caroden Brewer, Lowell Davis, Harold Guinn, and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Rasco.

The Minister Was Surprised.

On last Monday morning W. A. Reed, a member of the Centenary church, induced Rev. J. F. Patton to go three miles south of Skidmore with him to look at some hogs, while Mr. Reed left his family at the parsonage to be sure and keep the parson's wife and children at home. About 11 o'clock Ed Johnston headed a procession which drove up to the parsonage and unloaded a beautiful kitchen cabinet, and besides brought plenty to eat. This procession was the people of the Centenary church and neighborhood. As it happened they came in while Mrs. Patton was at the coal shed, and had complete possession of the house when she came in. About noon Rev. Patton and Bro. Reed came in, the Rev. Patton inviting Bro. Reed to come over for dinner. There was nothing to suspicion that the parsonage was in other hands until Rev. Patton came into the house for a bucket. However, Bro. Reed was chucked full of laugh. It was a surprise, indeed. The following were present: Mr. J. T. Linville and family, Mrs. Heaton, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. C. Nichols and son, Mrs. N. Shrewsbury, Mr. W. A. Reed and family, Rev. W. McGinniss and family, Mrs. Eslinger, J. D. Tarpley and family, Mrs. Ed Sharp, Mrs. Slawson, Miss Mattie Tarpley and mother, Laura and Sallie McDonald, Ed Johnston and wife, F. C. Kelley and wife, Mrs. Robert Patton and Miss Maude Tarpley. After dinner the photographer came up and took their "beautiful likenesses." They did not forget that the preacher is a "Methodist," and brought four big "Methodist" hens. A pleasant time was spent and surely it helped to bring pastor and people into a closer relation.

Surprised by Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Norris were given a happy surprise Sunday morning, after attending Sunday school as usual at the Palestine Christian church, southwest of Maryville. After visiting among those in attendance at Sunday school they left for their home, three miles away, and shortly after arriving there Mrs. Norris looked out of the door and saw the people they had just left at the church driving into their yard, unloading great baskets, while others were laughingly coming to the house, saying that they were going to eat dinner with them and spend the day beside. The host and hostess were so surprised they scarcely knew what to say at first, but they soon recovered and bade their visitors a joyous welcome. The women of the company soon had their aprons on and were arranging tables for the spread of a splendid dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Dilts, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Snowberger, Mr. and Mrs. James Linthicum, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shinall, Mr. and Mrs. Will V. Mountjoy, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shockley, Mrs. John Neal, Mrs. Clarence Charles, Mrs. M. T. Norris, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Anderson of Maryville, who came by invitation just in time to join the surprisers as they were on their way to the Norris home; Misses Minnie Farmer, Grace Norris, Maud Shockley, Marie Shockley, Edna Wood, Mayme Gex, Mary Welch, Olva Ramsey, Dora Farmer and Emma Norris, Paul Dilts, Oliver Neal, Blondia Neal, Stanley Neal, Everett Neal, Marshall Kiser, Dow Moody Mary Gex, Orrell Anderson, Martha Norris, Ruby Norris, Maggie Norris, Brooking Gex, Arthur Charles, Lawrence Charles, John Shockley, Glen Shockley, Ruth Ramey, Arthur Snowberger, Joe Gex, Robert Mountjoy, John Mountjoy, Audrey Linthicum, Katherine Welch.

ANOTHER AMERICAN WOUNDED

Gibbons Hit While Crossing Street.

REBELS GAIN GROUND

Mexican insurgents Have Better of Day's Fighting.

Mexico City, Feb. 18.—The rebels have advanced their lines and appear to be getting the best of the fighting. The operations were of a serious character.

An American named Gibbons was wounded while crossing the street near the embassy.

It is reported that Francisco de la Barra will be arrested at the first opportunity for alleged complicity in the rebellion.

The federals are preparing to use dynamite bombs on the rebel positions.

A sustained attack by the federals against the Young Men's Christian association building was repulsed by the rebels.

President Madero received the reply of President Taft to his telegram protesting against possible intervention, in which President Taft assured him that the reports that it was the intention of the United States government to land forces in Mexico were inaccurate.

"I never expected anything less than this," commented Madero, on reading President Taft's message. "I regard it as satisfactory and friendly."

Federals Less Aggressive.

The fighting continued throughout the day, but the federal guns were ineffective in dislodging the rebels from their entrenced and fortified positions. Furthermore, the federals did not show the same aggressiveness which characterized their action in the early days of the battle. This is believed to be due to the fact that they realize that for the present the government forces are not of sufficient strength to defeat the rebels.

General Huerta announced that he would soon begin a flanking movement, in which bombs would be used at short range. General Blanquet is loyal to the government and will be placed in command of the reserves at the palace.

Madero remains sanguine of the ultimate victory of the army. He declared he was optimistic of the outlook and that he had been offered support of all kinds.

Nearly all the non-combatants have moved out of the real danger zone. Bread and cornmeal are abundant in the capital and are being distributed among the poor.

The United States embassy and the district surrounding it, in which were many American residents, was not touched by any projectiles after the removal of the federal battery which had heretofore drawn the fire of the rebel gunners at the arsenal.

WILL SEND MORE MARINES

Two Thousand Ordered to Cuba for Use in Mexican Situation.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Two thousand United States marines from various barracks along the Atlantic coast were ordered to Cuba, there to be held in readiness for possible use in Mexico. Half of them will leave tonight from Philadelphia on the army transport Meade, already on its way from Newport News for the purpose. The second thousand will start from Norfolk on the naval transport Prairie, which, it is expected, will clear tomorrow.

Two army transports at Newport News were ordered by the war department to proceed empty to Galveston immediately. The order was given, it is understood, so that transports might be ready in case of serious developments to convey troops from the border to Vera Cruz.

Guantanamo is the present objective point of the marines, who will be established in camp in connection with the fleet under the command of Rear Admiral Badger. Whether these men will get farther than Guantanamo will depend upon Mexican developments.

President Taft plainly is worried by the fact that although he has only sixteen more days to serve in the White House, the situation in Mexico shows little signs of becoming less troublesome. The president has no desire to leave over for Mr. Wilson the settlement of this country's relations with Mexico, but he is decidedly opposed to taking any measures himself unless extreme provocation and wholesale murder of Americans drive him to it.

Madero's Troops Go Over to Diaz.

Brownsville, Tex., Feb. 18.—Without serious resistance, Matamoras, the Mexican town across the Rio Grande from Brownsville, passed into the hands of the Mexican rebels. This is the second Texas border town to be occupied by insurrectos since the Diaz revolt, the other being Nnevo Laredo.

KILLED IN ACCIDENT

few, if any, of the prominent sires or dams of any breed of live stock whose pedigree Mr. Bellows could not quote offhand.

In 1905 he took up the auctioneer's work, in which calling he had been engaged to the present time. His success along this line was marked from the beginning and at the time of his death he was probably one of the most widely known and sought auctioneers of pedigreed stock in the United States.

The automobile was taken out of the ditch and taken to Jesse Fisher's repair shop. Mr. Fisher said that the engine seemed to be in perfect working order, that the steering gear was in fine working order. The top of the car was broken, the windshield broken and the radiator and other small damages that will not cost more than $350 to repair.

Mr. Bellows' car was the same one in which they met with an accident while on a motor trip through the north and east in 1911. In the city of Chicago they were struck by a suburban car and the front of the car was torn off. Mr. Bellows and his family and Mrs. M. J. Honnold were in the car, but no one was injured.

From the position of Mr. Bellows' body in the car when found, it was thought he tried to save himself as much as possible from injury when the car went over in the ditch. He leaned to the left side of the car and his head was resting on the back of the seat.

The news of Mr. Bellows' death is mourned by the entire city and community, and but little else is talked of. No one in the city stood higher in the estimation of the people than did Mr. Bellows, and the family has the sincere sympathy of all in this sorrow that follows so quickly the sorrow in the loss of their mother, whose death occurred a month and two days ago.

JOAQUIN MILLER PASSES AWAY

Poet of the Sierras Dies in His One-Room Cabin.

DEATH APPROACHES SLOWLY.

Poem Considered by Venerable Writer as Best Work of His Life Interrupted by Last Summons—Wife and Daughter at Bedside.

San Francisco, Feb. 18.—Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, died in his one-room cabin, which he built with his own hands, in the Piedmont hills, many years ago. His daughter, Miss Juanita Miller, and his wife were with him.

The end came at 2 p. m. with the warm sunshine flooding the room where lay the author of "Sons of the Sunland."

Death came slowly upon the venerable poet. He became unconscious Thursday after a lingering illness which began when he succumbed to an attack of paralysis two years ago. His wife and daughter were summoned at that time from the east and have been with him since.

The weakness of old age had crept upon him and, although he worked at times, he rarely ventured from "The Heights," as he called his mountain retreat.

For many years "The Heights" has been the mecca of lovers of Joaquin Miller's poetry. He always received his guests graciously and loved to talk in a vein of quaint humor of the old, adventurous days, which he memorialized in his verse. His faculties were undimmed until almost the end and he worked at intervals upon a poem which he said was to be the most momentous work of his life. He guarded the poem with the utmost secrecy and not even his wife and daughter knew its subject.

Hope of saving his life ended when the attending physician announced that the end was only a matter of a few days. Senility was the only cause of death the physician could give.

HAS MESSAGE TO SULTAN

Major Finley, Moro Governor, on Mission to Constantinople.

New York, Feb. 18.—Major John P. Finley, governor of the Zamboanga or Moro district, in the Philippines, left New York today aboard the Adriatic, returning to his post. Major Finley will stop at Constantinople, where as minister plenipotentiary of the 600,000 Mohammedan Moros, he will present to the sultan of Turkey as the head of their religion a memorial praying religious direction.

Major Finley's mission, it is said has been sanctioned by President Taft.

In the memorial the Moros declared that they found conditions under the American government the best they had ever known, but that it was not very clear to them how church and state could be maintained separately. They want the assurance of the sultan that all is well so far as their religious status is concerned.

NURSE VAN NUYS TESTIFIES

Tells of Seeing Cyanide of Potassium in Swope Home.

Kansas City, Feb. 18.—Further testimony tending to show the use of cyanide of potassium in the Swope home by Dr. B. Clarke Hyde was given at the Hyde murder trail by Miss Lou E. Van Nuys, who was a nurse in the Swope home during the illness of Margaret Swope.

Miss Van Nuys testified she had seen the fragments of a capsule that had contained cyanide and that Tom Swope, the colonel's nephew, told her Hyde had thrown them away.

Miss Van Nuys said at the time she did not recognize the odor of cyanide but that it "dawned upon her later." She said she knew the odor of cyanide because she once had worked in a jewelry store, where it was used for cleaning.

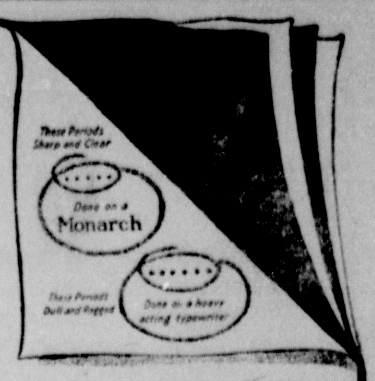
The Carbon-Copy Test that Proves the Superiority of the work produced by the Monarch.



Try this experiment: Take several sheets of writing paper with carbons between; place them on a flat surface and drop a lead pencil, point down, from a height of 18 or 20 inches. Note the clearness of the dot, even on the bottom sheet. Now make a dot by pressing the pencil into the paper, and then examine your carbon copies. The top one will show clear enough but the others will be faint and blurred.

Monarch Light Touch

This simple demonstration illustrates the light touch principle of the Monarch Typewriter. The action of the Creeping Fulcrum of the Monarch type bar is such that it throws the type face against the paper with a quick tap—not a slow push. This means clear impressions on the maximum number of carbon copies.

Monarch "Light Touch" is more than a mere talking point. It is a mechanical fact, and is one of the recognized features of the Monarch Typewriter. We are always glad to demonstrate this and other valuable features of the Monarch, and request those interested to write us for illustrated, descriptive literature.

We can arrange for a demonstration of the Monarch in your own office.

Twenty-nine Officials and Former Officials of Company Convicted of Violating Sherman Act—Lightest Sentence is Three Months.

Cincinnati, Feb. 18.—John H. Patterson, president of the National Cash Register company, who with twenty-eight other officials or former officials of the company were convicted of criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5,000 and to serve one year in jail.

The twenty-eight other defendants were sentenced to terms ranging from nine months to a year in jail and to pay the costs.

The men were convicted of having violated the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust law.

One of the defendants was given three months in jail, while three others were sentenced to nine months and the rest to one year. George Edgeter of Dayton, secretary of the company, was given the lightest sentence of three months. William Biphus, treasurer; Alfred A. Thomas of Dayton and Jonathan B. Hawyard of New York were given nine months in jail.

Formal notice of an appeal to the United States circuit court was given by attorneys for the defendants and the appeal is expected to be filed within a few days.

CANNOT FIX SALE PRICE

Federal Court Denies Right of Owners of Patents.

New York, Feb. 18.—The United States district court denied to owners of patents the right to fix the price for the resale of their patented articles. Judge Ray, who rendered the decision, held that the dealer who consents to fix prices as demanded by the patentee becomes a party to an illegal combination in restraint of trade. In this respect the decision carries out the purpose of a bill now before congress.

The action was brought by the Waltham Watch company against Charles A. Keene, a New York jeweler, to restrain the defendant from selling for less than a fixed price watch movements made by the Waltham company.

Says Banks Are Behind Times.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Sir Edmund Walker, a Canadian banking authority, before the currency reform committee of the house, declared the defects of the United States banking system were a lack of flexible currency, fixed reserves which dissipated needed cash in times of stress, and the absence of a re-discount bank. Sir Edmund declared that the banks of the United States had not grown in relation to the great industries of the country and that they were now "behind the times." He recommended a system of regional banking organizations.

SUCCESSFUL CLAIRVOYANT

Mr. Carl Bauer, the Famous German Clairvoyant and Psychologist, is Now in Maryville.

All the world is seeking light on occult forces, but Carl Bauer is a child of nature's greatest gifts and holds this divine gift as a sacred trust. Think of a man who can see your whole life as an open book. His extraordinary powers enable him to read human life with unerring accuracy. If you have been disappointed by others claiming this power and have been deceived by their work, do not get discouraged, as there are imposters and frauds in all walks of life, and the clairvoyant profession is no exception.

To those who are skeptical about the claims of Carl Bauer he desires to say that he will positively make no charge unless you find him superior to all others. Can anything be fairer?

Why waste money with pretenders when you can be assured of success by consulting the best for the same money? Without asking a question, without any previous knowledge and having no natural means of knowing who you are, whence or from what you came, giving names, dates, facts and locations, taking no fee in advance, accepting none unless satisfaction is given.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Mr. Bauer without fear of having their confidence betrayed, as he considers his business a sacred trust. Mr. Bauer can be consulted daily at private residence 322 North Mulberry street, corner of Fourth.

AUTOMOBILE RAN OFF BRIDGE NEAR EMBREE FARM.

FUNERAL ON THURSDAY

Accident Was Not Witnessed by Anyone, and the Cause Not Known—Shock to the City.

George P. Bellows, the noted live stock auctioneer, was instantly killed Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, when his automobile ran off of the bridge near the city, causing it to turn over with him. His chest was crushed in by the steering wheel, causing instant death. He also received other injuries.

No one saw the accident, which occurred at the small bridge west of the Embree farm home, about two and a half miles southwest of Maryville. Mr. Bellows had taken his sister, Miss Clara Bellows, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles D. Bellows, from the Bellows home in this city to Parkdale, the country home of his brother, Charles D. Bellows, southwest of Maryville, and was on his way for a visit at his own farm, a mile distant from that of his brother. When within a quarter of a mile of his destination it seemed that the car deviated from its course in the road just before approaching the small bridge over the creek. It is not known whether Mr. Bellows lost control of his car or not. The road leading to the bridge is down hill, and as it neared the approach to the bridge a short, sharp turn was necessary to bring the car into the right course to get upon the bridge. As he did so it seems that the right front wheel, instead of going upon the bridge as he intended it should, struck a plank at the edge of the bridge, about two feet from the end of the bridge upon which he was driving. The first post on the bridge was also torn off, and the car went over into the ditch, about ten feet deep, turning over on its top.

H. F. Medsker of near Graham was driving to Maryville in his car Monday afternoon, bringing with him Superintendent W. B. Christy of the Maryville M. E. district and Rev. H. K. Morga, pastor of the Graham and Quitman churches, who had been holding Sunday meeting at Mt. Zion church, southwest of Maryville.

As the party neared the little bridge over the ravine near the Embree farm, about 4 o'clock, they saw a buggy stop in the road ahead of them and two men get out and were standing at the bridge looking down as they drove up.

The men told them of the automobile overturned, and said they believed an old man and a woman were pinned under the car, as a car had passed them awhile back, driven by an old man, and a woman was with him.

Mr. Medsker and his party stopped, and seeing the post and bannisters of the bridge torn off and the big car turned over, they knew they must have help. A boy came up at that moment and said he believed it was the Bellows car.

Going down into the ravine and looking under the car, Dr. Christy was the first to recognize the face of George P. Bellows.

The news was telephoned by Dr. Christy from the Embree home to the Mason & Wilderman garage, where help was asked for, then to Dr. A. B. Allen for aid, and to the Maryville National bank, asking the business associates of C. D. Bellows, a brother of the deceased, to inform him of what had occurred.

Those who first found the overturned car are of the opinion that the accident had not occurred more than two minutes before they reached the spot. They are also of the opinion that the steering gear was at fault in some way, for the emergency wheel had been turned when Mr. Bellows saw his danger, but it had failed to do the work, or had been turned on too late. The post was torn off one side of the bridge.

They believed Mr. Bellows was fatally injured, perhaps dead, from the crushed look of his chest. The cigar he had been smoking was held in his mouth naturally. A slight abrasion of the skin across the nose and cheeks, as if made by a brush of weeds, was the only other sign of hurt.

When word reached Maryville, Mrs. Bellows and her mother, Mrs. M. J. Honnold, were attending a meeting of the Twentieth Century club at the home of Mrs. E. G. Orear. Word was sent to Mrs. Orear that her guests were needed at home at once, and the news of Mr. Bellows' death was kept from them until they reached their home.

Word was telegraphed to Mr. Harold Bellows, who is attending the Iowa Agricultural college at Ames, Ia., and the young man arrived home Tuesday morning. Fred Bellows, a nephew, who is also a student at Ames, arrived Tuesday.

The funeral services will take place Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the family home, 403 West First street. Rev. Gilbert S. Cox of the First M. E. church will have charge of the service. Interment in Miriam cemetery.

This is the second shock of grief that has come to the Bellows family in a month's time.

Mrs. Franklin Bellows, the mother of George P. Bellows, suddenly expired on the afternoon of January 16 last, at her home on South Fillmore street, in this city. Her husband died there December 2, 1907.

The brothers and sisters who survive Mr. Bellows are Charles D. and Fayette Bellows and Miss Clara Bellows of Maryville, John A. and Edwin Bellows of Chicago, Mrs. Artie Shack and Mrs. Mary Johnston of Seattle, Wash. One brother, Franklin Bellows, Jr., is deceased.

George Purdy Bellows was born in Champaign county, Ill., July 19, 1862. In 1865 his parents moved to Missouri and settled on a farm near Guilford.

His boyhood days to his majority were spent here, and here he laid the foundation for that sterling good character so marked in all his later life. In 1883 the farm was sold and the family come to Maryville, purchasing what was later known as the Valley Home farm.

At this time Mr. Bellows began his life career for himself. He attended the Missouri state university for a year, taught a term of country school and served a term as deputy county clerk under John S. Miller. On September 15, 1886, he married Miss Lela E. Honnold. To this union one son was born, Harold Honnold Bellows.

The lure of the farm and his love of fine stock drew him back again to the soil, and in 1888 he purchased an interest in Valley Home farm, where he stayed and engaged in the breeding of pedigreed Shorthorn cattle and Poland-China hogs. He was a close student, and an ardent love for his chosen work, together with his experience already acquired, soon rendered him an adept in the business.

In 1893 he accepted a position as live stock advertising solicitor on the Iowa Homestead of Des Moines, Ia., and Live Stock Indicator, of Kansas City, Mo. In this line his success was phenomenal.

Commencing with a liberal supply of energy, a thorough working knowledge of live stock, a clean, honest life, and a happy faculty of making friends, his years of work as a solicitor were a series of personal successes. He made friends and held them. He made friends for his papers. He developed a remarkable talent in judging live stock and in writing. His acquaintance extended to the best and most prominent breeders, and he was enabled to return value received for the money spent with his employers. His work in the field throughout his entire connection therewith was of the most satisfactory character.

His judgment of individuality in live stock, and his faculty of clear expression, made his reports of the prominent exhibitions exceedingly popular, and in this particular his papers were especially fortunate. In knowledge of pedigree Mr. Bellows has perhaps no equal. Twelve years constant visiting among the improved stock breeders made him acquainted with practically every animal of note, and there are

CRAIG SHOE BILL KILLED.

Undefended Measure Dies in Committee by Unanimous Vote.

Jefferson City.—The senate committee on commerce and manufactures, by a unanimous vote tonight killed the Craig bill providing that shoes manufactured in this state in which any other material than leather is used must be branded as imitation leather or containing such.

A large delegation of shoe manufacturers, jobbers, wholesalers and retail dealers in shoes were here in opposition to the bill and no one appeared in its favor. The manufacturers by dissection of shoes and other demonstrations convinced the committee that materials other than leather could be used in certain parts of a shoe to much better advantage both to the wearer and the manufacturer than leather.

'VARSITY STUDENTS FROM MARYVILLE WIN RECOGNITION.

HAWKINS AND KANE

Contributions to Writers' Club Magazine Accepted Over Eighty Other Students.

In the first number of the "Writers' Club Magazine" of the University of Missouri which appeared Sunday, February 16, Charles E. Kane and W. W. Hawkins each had work. The former had an article on "How to Swim: A Treatise" and the latter wrote of "The Average Student at the University of Missouri, His Intellectual and Social Life."

The Writers' Club is an organization started this year, and its purpose is to encourage writing among the students by furnishing them a means for the publication of their work. The "Writers' Club Magazine" is issued once a month as a supplement to the "University Missourian," the daily paper of the School of Journalism. In this way a reading public which is much larger than that of the ordinary college literary magazine is reached.

As their are 80 or more members in the Writers' Club the competition for the publication of work is strong, and it speaks well for those who succeed.

DEATH AT PARNELL.

Franklin Barber, an Old Resident of That Place, Died Tuesday Morning—Funeral Wednesday.

Franklin Barber, who has been ill for some time of Bright's disease and other complications, died at his home in Parnell Tuesday morning. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. W. B. Christy of Maryville. Burial at Parnell.

Franklin Barber was born in Washington county, New York, August 20, 1840. He was married March 9, 1871, to Nancy J. Peckenpaugh, at Cherokee, Kan. After residing there five years they took up their residence in Nodaway county. Three children survive with their mother, and are: Mrs. Lafe Cousins of Sheridan, George and James Barber of Parnell.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. A Surprise Party.

A surprise valentine party was given S. M. Lincoln and family, east of Pickering, last Friday night by their neighbors and friends. Announce Daughter's Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lindsay of Hopkins announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances Lindsay, to Mr. Harry A. Jones, at Troy, Kan., on Tuesday, February 11, 1913. The announcement comes as quite a surprise to the friends of the bride in Hopkins and Maryville, although it was expected that her marriage to Mr. Jones would be at no distant date. Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who are in business in Hopkins, went to St. Joseph on the day of the marriage, presumably on a business trip. In order to be sure that their marriage could be kept secret for a week, they went over to Troy, Kan., and were married. The bride is one of the most accomplished young women of Hopkins and has been the regular correspondent from that place for The Democrat-Forum, and is one of its valued contributors. Mr. Jones is a son of J. West Jones of Lenox, Ia., the well known auctioneer and breeder of fine stock. He has been connected with the Jones National School of Auctioneering of Chicago for several years, of which his brother, Harry M. Jones, is the head. He will retain his interest in that school, but will continue his business in Hopkins.

Dew Drop Inn Club.

A most enjoyable event was the entertainment of the Dew Drop Inn club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jones, Thursday evening. It was in the form of a valentine social, and the rooms were decorated with red hearts and darts. There was a postoffice and all had a merry time over the distribution of the valentines by the postmaster, Mr. H. W. Farrar. Valentine games were played, and in a contest of "proposals," Mrs. E. A. Baker received the prize, the consolation prize going to Miss Roxie McGinniss. A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Marguerite Greeson. The table was decorated with red hearts and green vines, the place cards being cupids. While the first course was being served little Wendell Jones brought in some delayed mail, and each guest received another valentine. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farrar and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Moore and son, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baker, Mr. P. H. Spaulding, Misses Marguerite Greeson, Roxie McGinniss, and the host and hostess. It was a most delightful evening.

The next meeting of the club will be a George Washington social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Moore, February 27.

A Pleasant Surprise.

A very pleasant surprise was planned and effectively carried out Saturday evening at the home of Peter Hope in honor of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Rasco and Cleta Rasco. A delightful evening was spent, after which a luncheon of pie was served. Mr. Rasco and family will move to Barnard Tuesday. There were about sixty-three present. Those present were Mr. Peter Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis, Mrs. L. F. Beecher, Mr. George Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. William Housman, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Criss, Mr. and Mrs. John Brewer, Mrs. Jesse Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Davis, Misses Cletta Rasco, Ada and Arno Davis Gertie and Rada Lance, Nora Kent, Ethel and Grace Stanton, Della and Julia Beecher, Lola Davis, Abbie and Emma Criss, Messrs. Harry Schmitt, Otis Stout, Stephen Lance, Ova Stout, Walter Criss, Bert Fanning, Reuben Neely, Glen Stanton, Henry Miller, David Townsend, Elbert Glaze, Earl Hurst, Oren Neely, Charley Hope, Lawrence Smith, Edward Shannon, Seibert Davis, Jay, Robert and Lloyd Ferguson, Wayne Housman, Emery Criss, Luke and Caroden Brewer, Lowell Davis, Harold Guinn, and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Rasco.

The Minister Was Surprised.

On last Monday morning W. A. Reed, a member of the Centenary church, induced Rev. J. F. Patton to go three miles south of Skidmore with him to look at some hogs, while Mr. Reed left his family at the parsonage to be sure and keep the parson's wife and children at home. About 11 o'clock Ed Johnston headed a procession which drove up to the parsonage and unloaded a beautiful kitchen cabinet, and besides brought plenty to eat. This procession was the people of the Centenary church and neighborhood. As it happened they came in while Mrs. Patton was at the coal shed, and had complete possession of the house when she came in. About noon Rev. Patton and Bro. Reed came in, the Rev. Patton inviting Bro. Reed to come over for dinner. There was nothing to suspicion that the parsonage was in other hands until Rev. Patton came into the house for a bucket. However, Bro. Reed was chucked full of laugh. It was a surprise, indeed. The following were present: Mr. J. T. Linville and family, Mrs. Heaton, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. C. Nichols and son, Mrs. N. Shrewsbury, Mr. W. A. Reed and family, Rev. W. McGinniss and family, Mrs. Eslinger, J. D. Tarpley and family, Mrs. Ed Sharp, Mrs. Slawson, Miss Mattie Tarpley and mother, Laura and Sallie McDonald, Ed Johnston and wife, F. C. Kelley and wife, Mrs. Robert Patton and Miss Maude Tarpley. After dinner the photographer came up and took their "beautiful likenesses." They did not forget that the preacher is a "Methodist," and brought four big "Methodist" hens. A pleasant time was spent and surely it helped to bring pastor and people into a closer relation.

Surprised by Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Norris were given a happy surprise Sunday morning, after attending Sunday school as usual at the Palestine Christian church, southwest of Maryville. After visiting among those in attendance at Sunday school they left for their home, three miles away, and shortly after arriving there Mrs. Norris looked out of the door and saw the people they had just left at the church driving into their yard, unloading great baskets, while others were laughingly coming to the house, saying that they were going to eat dinner with them and spend the day beside. The host and hostess were so surprised they scarcely knew what to say at first, but they soon recovered and bade their visitors a joyous welcome. The women of the company soon had their aprons on and were arranging tables for the spread of a splendid dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Dilts, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Snowberger, Mr. and Mrs. James Linthicum, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shinall, Mr. and Mrs. Will V. Mountjoy, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shockley, Mrs. John Neal, Mrs. Clarence Charles, Mrs. M. T. Norris, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Anderson of Maryville, who came by invitation just in time to join the surprisers as they were on their way to the Norris home; Misses Minnie Farmer, Grace Norris, Maud Shockley, Marie Shockley, Edna Wood, Mayme Gex, Mary Welch, Olva Ramsey, Dora Farmer and Emma Norris, Paul Dilts, Oliver Neal, Blondia Neal, Stanley Neal, Everett Neal, Marshall Kiser, Dow Moody Mary Gex, Orrell Anderson, Martha Norris, Ruby Norris, Maggie Norris, Brooking Gex, Arthur Charles, Lawrence Charles, John Shockley, Glen Shockley, Ruth Ramey, Arthur Snowberger, Joe Gex, Robert Mountjoy, John Mountjoy, Audrey Linthicum, Katherine Welch.

ANOTHER AMERICAN WOUNDED

Gibbons Hit While Crossing Street.

REBELS GAIN GROUND

Mexican Insurgents Have Better of Day's Fighting.

Mexico City, Feb. 18.—The rebels have advanced their lines and appear to be getting the best of the fighting. The operations were of a serious character.

An American named Gibbons was wounded while crossing the street near the embassy.

It is reported that Francisco de la Barra will be arrested at the first opportunity for alleged complicity in the rebellion.

The federals are preparing to use dynamite bombs on the rebel positions.

A sustained attack by the federals against the Young Men's Christian association building was repulsed by the rebels.

President Madero received the reply of President Taft to his telegram protesting against possible intervention, in which President Taft assured him that the reports that it was the intention of the United States government to land forces in Mexico were inaccurate.

"I never expected anything less than this," commented Madero, on reading President Taft's message. "I regard it as satisfactory and friendly."

Federals Less Aggressive.

The fighting continued throughout the day, but the federal guns were ineffective in dislodging the rebels from their entrenced and fortified positions. Furthermore, the federals did not show the same aggressiveness which characterized their action in the early days of the battle. This is believed to be due to the fact that they realize that for the present the government forces are not of sufficient strength to defeat the rebels.

General Huerta announced that he would soon begin a flanking movement, in which bombs would be used at short range. General Blanquet is loyal to the government and will be placed in command of the reserves at the palace.

Madero remains sanguine of the ultimate victory of the army. He declared he was optimistic of the outlook and that he had been offered support of all kinds.

Nearly all the non-combatants have moved out of the real danger zone. Bread and cornmeal are abundant in the capital and are being distributed among the poor.

The United States embassy and the district surrounding it, in which were many American residents, was not touched by any projectiles after the removal of the federal battery which had heretofore drawn the fire of the rebel gunners at the arsenal.

Two Thousand Ordered to Cuba for Use in Mexican Situation.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Two thousand United States marines from various barracks along the Atlantic coast were ordered to Cuba, there to be held in readiness for possible use in Mexico. Half of them will leave tonight from Philadelphia on the army transport Meade, already on its way from Newport News for the purpose. The second thousand will start from Norfolk on the naval transport Prairie, which, it is expected, will clear tomorrow.

Two army transports at Newport News were ordered by the war department to proceed empty to Galveston immediately. The order was given, it is understood, so that transports might be ready in case of serious developments to convey troops from the border to Vera Cruz.

Guantanamo is the present objective point of the marines, who will be established in camp in connection with the fleet under the command of Rear Admiral Badger. Whether these men will get farther than Guantanamo will depend upon Mexican developments.

President Taft plainly is worried by the fact that although he has only sixteen more days to serve in the White House, the situation in Mexico shows little signs of becoming less troublesome. The president has no desire to leave over for Mr. Wilson the settlement of this country's relations with Mexico, but he is decidedly opposed to taking any measures himself unless extreme provocation and wholesale murder of Americans drive him to it.

Madero's Troops Go Over to Diaz.

Brownsville, Tex., Feb. 18.—Without serious resistance, Matamoras, the Mexican town across the Rio Grande from Brownsville, passed into the hands of the Mexican rebels. This is the second Texas border town to be occupied by insurrectos since the Diaz revolt, the other being Nnevo Laredo.

few, if any, of the prominent sires or dams of any breed of live stock whose pedigree Mr. Bellows could not quote offhand.

In 1905 he took up the auctioneer's work, in which calling he had been engaged to the present time. His success along this line was marked from the beginning and at the time of his death he was probably one of the most widely known and sought auctioneers of pedigreed stock in the United States.

The automobile was taken out of the ditch and taken to Jesse Fisher's repair shop. Mr. Fisher said that the engine seemed to be in perfect working order, that the steering gear was in fine working order. The top of the car was broken, the windshield broken and the radiator and other small damages that will not cost more than $350 to repair.

Mr. Bellows' car was the same one in which they met with an accident while on a motor trip through the north and east in 1911. In the city of Chicago they were struck by a suburban car and the front of the car was torn off. Mr. Bellows and his family and Mrs. M. J. Honnold were in the car, but no one was injured.

From the position of Mr. Bellows' body in the car when found, it was thought he tried to save himself as much as possible from injury when the car went over in the ditch. He leaned to the left side of the car and his head was resting on the back of the seat.

The news of Mr. Bellows' death is mourned by the entire city and community, and but little else is talked of. No one in the city stood higher in the estimation of the people than did Mr. Bellows, and the family has the sincere sympathy of all in this sorrow that follows so quickly the sorrow in the loss of their mother, whose death occurred a month and two days ago.

JOAQUIN MILLER PASSES AWAY

Poet of the Sierras Dies in His One-Room Cabin.

DEATH APPROACHES SLOWLY.

Poem Considered by Venerable Writer as Best Work of His Life Interrupted by Last Summons—Wife and Daughter at Bedside.

San Francisco, Feb. 18.—Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, died in his one-room cabin, which he built with his own hands, in the Piedmont hills, many years ago. His daughter, Miss Juanita Miller, and his wife were with him.

The end came at 2 p. m. with the warm sunshine flooding the room where lay the author of "Sons of the Sunland."

Death came slowly upon the venerable poet. He became unconscious Thursday after a lingering illness which began when he succumbed to an attack of paralysis two years ago. His wife and daughter were summoned at that time from the east and have been with him since.

The weakness of old age had crept upon him and, although he worked at times, he rarely ventured from "The Heights," as he called his mountain retreat.

For many years "The Heights" has been the mecca of lovers of Joaquin Miller's poetry. He always received his guests graciously and loved to talk in a vein of quaint humor of the old, adventurous days, which he memorialized in his verse. His faculties were undimmed until almost the end and he worked at intervals upon a poem which he said was to be the most momentous work of his life. He guarded the poem with the utmost secrecy and not even his wife and daughter knew its subject.

Hope of saving his life ended when the attending physician announced that the end was only a matter of a few days. Senility was the only cause of death the physician could give.

Major Finley, Moro Governor, on Mission to Constantinople.

New York, Feb. 18.—Major John P. Finley, governor of the Zamboanga or Moro district, in the Philippines, left New York today aboard the Adriatic, returning to his post. Major Finley will stop at Constantinople, where as minister plenipotentiary of the 600,000 Mohammedan Moros, he will present to the sultan of Turkey as the head of their religion a memorial praying religious direction.

Major Finley's mission, it is said has been sanctioned by President Taft.

In the memorial the Moros declared that they found conditions under the American government the best they had ever known, but that it was not very clear to them how church and state could be maintained separately. They want the assurance of the sultan that all is well so far as their religious status is concerned.

NURSE VAN NUYS TESTIFIES

Tells of Seeing Cyanide of Potassium in Swope Home.

Kansas City, Feb. 18.—Further testimony tending to show the use of cyanide of potassium in the Swope home by Dr. B. Clarke Hyde was given at the Hyde murder trail by Miss Lou E. Van Nuys, who was a nurse in the Swope home during the illness of Margaret Swope.

Miss Van Nuys testified she had seen the fragments of a capsule that had contained cyanide and that Tom Swope, the colonel's nephew, told her Hyde had thrown them away.

Miss Van Nuys said at the time she did not recognize the odor of cyanide but that it "dawned upon her later." She said she knew the odor of cyanide because she once had worked in a jewelry store, where it was used for cleaning.

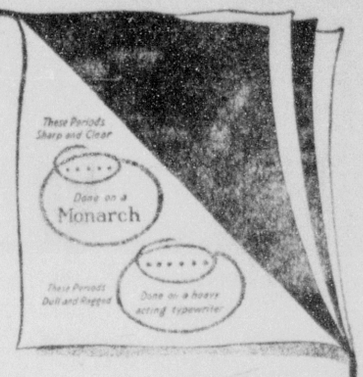
The Carbon-Copy Test that Proves the Superiority of the work produced by the Monarch.



Try this experiment: Take several sheets of writing paper with carbons between; place them on a flat surface and drop a lead pencil, point down, from a height of 18 or 20 inches. Note the clearness of the dot, even on the bottom sheet. Now make a dot by pressing the pencil into the paper, and then examine your carbon copies. The top one will show clear enough but the others will be faint and blurred.

Monarch Light Touch

This simple demonstration illustrates the light touch principle of the Monarch Typewriter. The action of the Creeping Fulcrum of the Monarch type bar is such that it throws the type face against the paper with a quick tap—not a slow push. This means clear impressions on the maximum number of carbon copies.

Monarch "Light Touch" is more than a mere talking point. It is a mechanical fact, and is one of the recognized features of the Monarch Typewriter. We are always glad to demonstrate this and other valuable features of the Monarch, and request those interested to write us for illustrated, descriptive literature.

We can arrange for a demonstration of the Monarch in your own office.

CANNOT FIX SALE PRICE

Federal Court Denies Right of Owners of Patents.

New York, Feb. 18.—The United States district court denied to owners of patents the right to fix the price for the resale of their patented articles. Judge Ray, who rendered the decision, held that the dealer who consents to fix prices as demanded by the patentee becomes a party to an illegal combination in restraint of trade. In this respect the decision carries out the purpose of a bill now before congress.

The action was brought by the Waltham Watch company against Charles A. Keene, a New York jeweler, to restrain the defendant from selling for less than a fixed price watch movements made by the Waltham company.

Says Banks Are Behind Times.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Sir Edmund Walker, a Canadian banking authority, before the currency reform committee of the house, declared the defects of the United States banking system were a lack of flexible currency, fixed reserves which dissipated needed cash in times of stress, and the absence of a re-discount bank. Sir Edmund declared that the banks of the United States had not grown in relation to the great industries of the country and that they were now "behind the times." He recommended a system of regional banking organizations.

SUCCESSFUL CLAIRVOYANT

All the world is seeking light on occult forces, but Carl Bauer is a child of nature's greatest gifts and holds this divine gift as a sacred trust. Think of a man who can see your whole life as an open book. His extraordinary powers enable him to read human life with unerring accuracy. If you have been disappointed by others claiming this power and have been deceived by their work, do not get discouraged, as there are imposters and frauds in all walks of life, and the clairvoyant profession is no exception.

To those who are skeptical about the claims of Carl Bauer he desires to say that he will positively make no charge unless you find him superior to all others. Can anything be fairer?

Why waste money with pretenders when you can be assured of success by consulting the best for the same money? Without asking a question, without any previous knowledge and having no natural means of knowing who you are, whence or from what you came, giving names, dates, facts and locations, taking no fee in advance, accepting none unless satisfaction is given.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Mr. Bauer without fear of having their confidence betrayed, as he considers his business a sacred trust. Mr. Bauer can be consulted daily at private residence 322 North Mulberry street, corner of Fourth.

Hours—9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily; 10 to 4 Sundays.

Readings $1.00, no more and no less. Mrs. Bauer receives all callers.

Notice—Positively no one seen after hours and no young ladies under 18 given readings unless accompanied by parents or guardians.—Advertisement.
